

The Providence Journal

projo.com

FRIDAY JANUARY 20, 2006

A treasure trove of books

Racheal Adriko-Spillberg, above, a teacher from Uganda now living in Providence, looks over some of the books collected by Lincoln High School students that she will incorporate into a mobile library for her native country. At right, fifth graders Chris Esper and Christina Lopez listen to Adriko-Spillberg, who has collected 600 books to add to the 10,000 already donated. Her husband, Rich, left, stands in front of a map of Uganda.

